

ROWALLAN PARK – How to get there

From Mackay –

1. From the traffic lights at the intersection near the show grounds, travel north, along the Bruce Highway, towards Proserpine for a total of 7.1 km.
2. You will go over the Ron Cam Bridge / Pioneer River
3. 2 km - Set of traffic lights (McDonalds on your left)
4. 3 km – Continue straight ahead, do not turn right through the traffic lights. (Turn off to Northern Beaches and Mt Pleasant Shopping Centre on your right.)
5. 6.6 km you will come onto an overtaking lane. The turn off onto Glendaragh Rd is to the right just past the end of the overtaking lane. Do not go over the overpass for the Train & Tram lines.
6. Travel 2.1 km along Glendaragh Rd (single lane bitumen Rd.) At this point the road has a right angle bend. In front of you is a sign 'Scout Camping Reserve' pointing to the left.
7. Follow the sign to the left down across a concrete causeway and onto a formed dirt road. Follow this road for 1 km. You will 3 grids, the last being the entrance to Rowallan Park

From Proserpine –

1. From Farleigh, continue towards Mackay for 2.3 km
2. Immediately after you cross the overpass over the Train and Tram lines make a sharp left turn into Glendaragh Rd
3. Travel 2.1 km along Glendaragh Rd (single lane bitumen Rd.) At this point the road has a right angle bend. In front of you is a sign 'Scout Camping Reserve' pointing to the left.
